"A" Gas Books Expire

Must Apply For Gas Coupons

Only Half Car Owners Have Filed; Will Be Out of Gas If Too Many Wait July 22

Only about half of the car owners of Randall county with "A" books have made application for new coupons.

The old coupons expire July 21, and the new coupons will be good on July 22. Unless large numbers of car owners make applications for new coupons at once, chances are many Randall county car owners will be without gasoline for several days next week.

It takes considerable time to complete the applications for new coupons and it will be impossible to handle several hundred applications during the final days before present gasoline coupons expire.

The first renewals were mailed out yesterday from the local board. The new coupons are in sheets, rather than in book form. The value of the new coupons is not announced by OPA, and no expiration dates are given on the coupons. The first inspection date for tires will be on or before Sept. 30, 1943.

Child Fell From Train Friday, and Died on Sunday

A five-year-old girl died Sunday in an Amarillo hospital due to injuries received in an unusual accident.

Petrea Christoffersen was picked up Friday by section men four miles north of Canyon as dead. She had fallen from a Santa Fe train traveling about 60 miles per hour. How the accident occurred will no doubt always be a mystery.

Dr. Robert P. Jarrett took the child to an Amarillo hospital and for two days it was thought the girl might live.

The mother, Mrs. John Christoffersen and an older son, were on the train but did not miss the girl until Amarillo had been passed. At Pampa she was notified that the child had been picked up, and she rushed back to the hospital.

The body was taken to Chanute, Kansas, for burial.

Wheat Damaged Rains Continue

Only Few Days of Good Harvest Weather; Total Moisture Now 5.99 Inches

More rain has greatly interfered with harvest again this week. A heavy rain of 1.58 inches fell in Canyon Thursday night. Another rain fell Tuesday night, amounting to .52 of an inch. Harvest will be delayed again for several days.

Tuesday's rain brought the July total up to 3.99 inches, and 5.99 inches since the last week of June. The total moisture for 1943 was boosted to 9.08.

A heavy rain fell north of Canyon Friday night, not only a very light sprinkle fell here.

Two horses were killed by lightning at the Joe Currie farm Thursday night and another horse badly injured.

Bill Martin lost 3 yearlings by lightning.

Hail fell at the O'Donnell place Friday night.

Two very bad storms hit the Panhandle Thursday when Dumas, on the north, and Tulsa, at the south, were centers of destructive hail and wind storms. A great deal of damage was done at both of these towns.

Harvest was generally in full swing again Monday after Friday's rain. The test of wheat was badly cut by the continued rains of the past two weeks. Some farmers who were in town Saturday estimated that the wheat yield had been cut from 15% to 20% by the continued rain. Others believed that this was too high, and that the test on the wheat would be raised by spreading out the wheat until the weed seed dried, and then blowing it out.

A few fortunate farmers had completed cutting wheat before the heavy part of the rain and therefore suffered no loss.

Quite a number of farmers reported that their wheat had been so green during the rains that they were only getting started this week. Unless weeds hurt the test on this late wheat it is estimated that this will be the best part of the crop.

It is rather amusing at times to hear a group of men discussing what the war is doing to them, individually. The salaried man tells you that it is wrecking him, since his salary has not increased, but the cost of living is up, and there is nothing he can do to offset this increase. Men in some lines of business and some professions find that they are completely wiped out, and they are having to change occupations for a mere living. Many business men will tell you that they have the greatest opportunities in their lives, if they could only get the goods to sell; but that every day they keep their stores open, their stocks are just that much more depleted; and they are burned up with reports, reports, reports. The farmer will tell you that he is having to reduce his operations at a time when the nation needs more food simply because he cannot get help and machinery. And so on, and on. Which leads to one conclusion: Every one of us are hit, and hit hard by the war.

We read an interesting editorial by a well known Texas newspaper man in which he deplored the criticism that was going on in the nation at the present time. His theme that we should look at the good in the nation, and not criticize the bad of which we may be aware. That sounds pretty good because we all agree that so far the good overwhelms the bad; but one rotten apple in a barrel will soon contaminate the whole barrel full; most people like dogs, but they do not hesitate to kill a mad dog before he bites all of the good dogs in the community; we are very lenient with our neighbor until he throws a dead cat in our alley, or lets the weeds overrun his place and threatens our property. This is a Democracy, and under our form of government every citizen has the right to protest when he sees something wrong with the government. There are so many things of which we may now protest, in spite of all the good of which every citizen is fully aware.

Henry J. Kaiser, the miracle industrialist, says that he will put a new car on the market at the close of the war. He believes that industrial America will forestall a depression. Henry Ford has expressed such faith. If the industrialists are given a chance after the war, they can bring about a renewal of prosperity. But if they are to be hamstrung and surrounded by red tape from Washington, and forced to accept orders from men who know nothing about big industry, then most anything can happen. It is said in Washington that war measures will be outlawed as soon as the war is won, but it is hard to accomplish such a thing since it involves the jobs of thousands in Washington who have the ear of the administration.

The News sent subscriptions this week to two leading newspapers, namely the Dallas News and the Star-Telegram. In both instances the checks were returned with the notice that no more new subscriptions could be accepted. The big daily newspapers must reduce the consumption of print paper at least 5 per cent starting July 1. This means no more new subscriptions, and an actual reduction in the number of pages printed. This means just this: If you have a subscription now to your favorite daily newspaper, do not allow it to expire, as the chances are you will not be able to renew it. The Canyon News will be glad to assist all subscribers in keeping up their daily newspapers and magazines.

The President won his fight with Congress and now has a free hand to dole out subsidies. When he vetoed the bill to prohibit the payment of subsidies, the President stated that if inflation started the blame would be on the shoulders of Congress. Now that he has the authority to pay subsidies, the President must bear the blame if inflation comes in spite of the millions of dollars that will be thrown away. Let it be remembered, however, that the American people will have these millions of dollars to repay, regardless of the results.

The conversation of a man resembles a piece of embroidered tapestry, which, when spread out, shows its figures, but, when it is folded up, they are hidden and lost. —Themistocles.

At his press conference the other day the President indicated that he was not going to take a hand in the enforcement of anti-strike bill. If the news men were correct in the President's attitude, then he will continue playing ball with the few million union members at the expense of the many millions of us who are called upon to foot the bill. The President has further indicated that due to his engrossment in the war that he has become out of touch with domestic problems. He is reported to be alarmed over the revolt in Congress and from now on will leave the prosecution of the war up to military experts while he pays some attention to domestic problems. Here is hoping that he does not create additional bureaus so as to increase the buckpassing and further add to the confusion of war regulations.

Congress has adjourned and the members are at home finding out what the people are thinking. It is reported that the administration believes that the people will tell Congressmen to return to Washington in September and do the bidding of the President. On the other hand, the Congressmen may be told to stay in there and pitch, working to cut out all the waste which is going on in Washington. It will be interesting to see just what reaction the members carry back to Washington. With elections coming next year and very little opportunity for the members to again circulate among the folks at home, this breathing spell and visit with the voters should be of great value to members of Congress.

We hope that General Billy Mitchell, Arthur Brisbane and Will Rogers know the part that planes are playing in this war. Mitchell was discredited by his fellow army officers, including General MacArthur, for his demand that the nation should increase air power. Brisbane and Rogers pleaded with the people of the nation to build more planes, but we ignored their pleas. Men with vision are too often brushed aside by those of us who live minute by minute; to us they are nutty about their subject, rather than prophets.

Here at The News office we have sold more copies of Wendell Willkie's Old World than any book we have handled since Gone With the Wind was so popular. As a matter of fact no recent book has taken the fancy of the American people to such a degree as has that of Willkie. It has surpassed all expectation, and is selling as fast as it can be printed. This could not have been true without the popular approval of the people of the author himself, and the belief that he has an idea worth while.

There has been much discussion in Congress of the proposal to allow soldiers to vote. In the last primaries in Texas the soldiers could vote, but not one-half of 1 per cent paid any attention to the provision. These men are too busy in their training to keep up with political affairs. This would be different if some controversial question like liquor was to be voted upon, but upon pure political questions, the average soldier is willing for the folks at home to do the voting.

Armchair strategists should take into consideration the success of our armies. Campaigns are started only after long weeks of preparation and careful timing. Most of us would have jumped from North Africa to Sicily—and been whipped. But our capable military leaders have taken time to make all of the necessary preparations. When there are enough men and war equipment available, the Axis will be hit another blow—where, no one knows, except those who are carefully planning the attack.

The food situation will be one of the major issues of the 1944 presidential campaign. When the habits of a nation must be changed overnight, there is a lot of grumbling, regardless of the merits of the case. There are so many ideas about the food situation, and so much disagreement as to the causes of shortages that it is going to be hard to convince any large group of people than any one person understand all the various angles.

Says J. C. Estlack in "The Temple of Truth" of the Donley County Leader: "Nobody ever expected to live to see the time when applesauce would be graded at 14 points, bologna at 7 and brains at 3 points. But they have."

Child delinquency is fast becoming a national problem. Authorities are worried about the situation, and wondering what will take place if another depression follows the war.

The school teachers are back in the saddle. A few years ago there was a surplus of teachers, and jobs were hard to get. Today there is a decided shortage of teachers, and they can get jobs at will.

There are more federal employees in Texas than there are State and local employees. That is hard to believe, but it is nevertheless the truth. There are eight other states in which this is likewise true.

"There is direct and indirect taxation. Give me an example of indirect taxation."

"The dog tax, sir."

"How is that?"

"The dog does not have to pay it."

MATERNITY CARE FOR SERVICEMEN'S WIVES

More than three-fourths of the states have received approval of the Children's Bureau, Department of Labor, of programs for medical and hospital maternity care for wives of men in the four lower pay grades of the armed services. The programs also include medical care for babies. A serviceman's wife may make application for complete medical care during pregnancy and childbirth, and for six weeks after childbirth. She may also apply for medical care for her child to extend throughout the child's first year of life. To get such care, all the wife needs to do is to fill out simple forms, which, if her own doctor is unable to furnish copies, she can get from the State health department.

NO GAS TO GO TO GARDENS

Special rations of gasoline for travel to Victory gardens were discontinued July 12, although rations already issued for this purpose may be used as long as valid. This action was taken by OPA upon advice of the Department of Agriculture that gardens planted after that date would be too late to produce enough food to warrant extra use of tires and gasoline in cultivating them.

CO-OPS CAN REPLACE STOCKS

Farmers' cooperatives and any other dealers who sell farm supplies at cost or at a markup of not more than three per cent, are permitted to replenish stocks on farmers' certificates on a dollar-for-dollar basis, under a recent amendment of Priorities Regulation No. 19. Previously, the dealer could use the farmer's certificate to get supplies only up to 75 per cent of his sales. The amendment enables farmers' cooperatives which sell approximately at cost to make full replacement of their stock.

CAN'T SEND RECORDINGS OVERSEAS

Discs or recordings containing personal messages cannot be sent to soldiers stationed outside the continental limits of the U. S., the War Department has announced. There is no objection to sending discs of personal messages within the continental United States.

AGRICULTURAL JOBS FILLED

During May, the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission filled 1,005,489 jobs in industry and agriculture, an increase of 11.2 per cent over April. Of these jobs, 297,725 were in farm work or food processing, an increase of 38.3 over April and 63.6 over May 1942. For January thru May, the total placements were 739,044, an increase of 128.4 over the same months in 1942.

RATIONS FOR SICK

Although the need to conserve rationed foods is great, no hospital patient's health need suffer, the OPA has announced. Local rationing boards have been given authority to provide supplementary allotments to meet the dietary requirements of patients in hospitals—whether or not such patients are on special diets.

COAL PRODUCTION LAGS

Coal production for the first half of 1943 was an estimated 1,729,000 tons less than for the same period in 1942. Solid Fuel Administrator Harold L. Ickes has reported. "The gravity of this loss of production is emphasized by the fact that the Nation will need an estimated 25,000,000 tons of coal more this year than last," he said.

CASUALTIES OF WAR

Casualties of the United States Armed Forces from the outbreak of the war to July 3 total 91,644. This total, based on War and Navy Department reports, includes: dead, 16,696; wounded, 21,828; missing, 31,579; prisoners of war, 21,541. Of these, Army casualties total 64,621; Navy, 27,023.

TRAFFIC DECREASES IN RURAL AREAS

Traffic on rural roads in the East decreased from December through May to less than half of pre-war normal, according to the Public Roads Administration of the FWA. A minor exception is March when eastern traffic was 52 per cent of normal. Traffic in the "western" area, rationed since December 1, 1942, has settled down to less than two-thirds of pre-war normal.

BANDAGE CLOTH SUPPLY ASSURED

Adequate supplies of bandage

cloth, both for civilian and military use, will be available. Looms making cotton cloth suitable for bandages and other specified uses will continue to do so, by a recent WPB order.

LOCAL POULTRY PRICES

Regional Administrator of the OPA now can adjust local processors' prices for dressed poultry. Regional Administrators also have the power to change definitions of sellers and types of sales. They are not empowered to change the farmers' selling price for live poultry, however, and may not increase the selling price of poultry at retail, or to any ultimate consumer.

ENOUGH FLOOR COVERINGS

Smooth durable linoleum and printed floor coverings are being produced in substantial quantities to meet the greatly increased demand, WPB has reported. Used in new housing projects and in reconditioning old buildings, smooth surface floor coverings save lumber, nails, and labor, and contribute to sanitation.

MANY SHIPS LAUNCHED

The Nation's shipyards delivered 168 cargo vessels totaling 1,676,500 deadweight tons in June, the Maritime Commission has announced. This may be compared with the record total of 175 for May and 157 in April. The June figures brought production for the first half of 1943 to 879 ships totaling 8,818,622 deadweight tons. In the entire year 1942 the yards produced 746 vessels totaling 8,089,732 deadweight tons.

Two young ladies were walking down Fifth Avenue. Suddenly one cut loose with a piercing shriek. "Look," she cried in amazement. "What is so terrible?" asked her friend. "They are only midgets." "Thank goodness," said the other girl, greatly relieved. "I thought for a minute they were rationing men." —Oil Weekly.

Pass the Peas, Please

Soak peas in ice water, loosen wringer, place pan atop tub on paper to prevent scattering—start grinding! Mrs. J. B. Muecke, left, and Mrs. Leota Stanton of Ottawa, Kan., shell a bushel in 40

SOME COMFORT

Winston Churchill, the story goes, after a night of bombing, "Well, was walking through the ruins of some blitzed streets when an old woman greeted him. The prime minister asked her how she felt there's one thing about these air raids," she replied cheerfully, "they do take your mind off the war."

EDGETOWN H. D. CLUB WITH MRS. GEO. TAYLOR

The Edgetown H. D. Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Geo. I. Taylor. The club decided to increase its efficiency by the study and practice of parliamentary proceedings.

Miss Frances Wilroy gave a very timely demonstration on pressure cooker canning of vegetables and water bath canning of acid vegetables and fruit. She showed the advantages of raw packing over pre-cooking in that the finished product is less broken up and retains more of the natural color.

Punch and cake was served to new member, Mrs. Henry Cone, and the regular members, Mesdames E. B. Anthony, W. T. Davis, L. L. Gore, W. L. Rice, O. M. Solomon, P. L. Walters, W. I. Wester, R. M. Gibbs, T. T. Pain, Miss Mabel Solomon, and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Anthony at 2:30 p. m., July 23.

E. T. Smith of Wellington was a business caller here Monday.

PRISCILLA CLUB MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY

The Priscilla Club met Wednesday, July 7, in the home of Mrs. George A. Farlow. The house was decorated with sweet peas.

Frozen lemon pie and punch were served to Mesdames J. L. Dufort, J. J. Walker, Ray McReynolds, S. B. Louder, A. K. Knott, Virgil Henson, Frank Hicks, C. M. Presley, Clyde McElroy, Alfred Bellah, Hud Prichard, and J. Madison Daugherty.

Ida Martha Pierle and Bob Patterson Wed Saturday

Miss Ida Martha Pierle, daughter of Dr. Chester A. Pierle, and Cpl. Robert Lester Patterson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Patterson of Corsicana, were married at the bride's home here Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Rt. Rev. E. Cecil Seaman, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church's Missionary District of North Texas, performed the ceremony before a green-banked mantel on which candles were placed.

Before the ceremony, Miss Lily Jack Wofford sang "Because." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Virginia Vaughan, who also played Liszt's "Liebestraum" and Wagner's "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of embroidered chiffon with puffed sleeves and a modified sweetheart neckline; her fingertip veil was of imported bridal illusion. A strand of pearls belonging to her sister was the bride's only ornament, and she carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

At the reception following the ceremony, Miss Eleanor Pierle of Phillips presided at the Irish cut-glass punch bowl which had belonged to the bride's great-grandmother. She was assisted at the table by Misses Nell Green and Martha Nell Burton. The table featured green and white, the bride's chosen colors.

Mrs. Patterson attended West Texas Demonstration School and received her B. A. degree from West Texas State College in 1942. She has been attending the Medical Branch of the University of Texas at Galveston, Tex. While in college, she was a member of Kappa Tau Phi and Pi Beta Gamma and active in music and journalism groups as a member of band, orchestra and chorus and yearbook and newspaper staffs.

Cpl. Patterson attended schools in Jacksonville and Corsicana, and was graduated from West Texas State College in 1942 with a B. S. degree. In college he was a member of Pi Beta Gamma fraternity and the East Texas Club. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps in May, 1942, but was allowed to complete his degree before being inducted. He is now stationed at the Army Air Force Basic Flight School at Garden City, Kans.

Mrs. Patterson expects to remain in Canyon until this fall.

PIONEERS TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

The Pioneers Club of Canyon will meet at the home of Mrs. J. W. McCreary next Thursday, July 22. Each member is to bring a basket lunch for the picnic.

CORRECT TABLE MANNERS SUBJECT OF CLUB TALK

"Correct table manners are one of the most essential points which make a meal pleasant," stated Miss Frances Wilroy in a 4-H Club meeting held July 8 at the Parish Hall in Umbarger.

Her demonstration was based mainly on correct ways of arranging the table.

A few table manners most essential are:

1. After the knife has been used it is customary that it should be laid across the upper right hand corner of the plate to prevent its being knocked off the table or soiling the table cloth.

2. One asks to have food passed. Reaching may cause accidents or may disturb other persons, and the food may be served more easily and orderly when each person who desires the food helps himself and it is passed.

This club meeting was the last one of the year and naturally the date for the next one has not yet been set.

Those present were Rita and Teresa Westhoff, Helen and Martha Hoffman, Pauline Bracht, Ormaline Brockman, Anne Hollenstein, and Teresa, Lillian and Leona Grabber.

Mrs. W. Holmes Smith returned Tuesday from San Antonio, where she has been visiting relatives and friends. Her father, George Ludeman, and her sister, Henrietta Ludeman, returned with her for a short visit.

Mrs. Emma Charles and granddaughter, Billie Ann Charles, returned to their home in Albuquerque, N. M., after a visit of six weeks with Mrs. Wm. Rogers.

LAS SENORAS MET WITH MRS. DAVIS

The Las Senoras Nevas Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Clyde Davis.

The house was decorated with pastel gladiolas. Mrs. M. E. Cantrell was high score winner, and Mrs. Alfred Bellah was low score winner.

A salad course and iced tea was served to Mesdames Tom Brasher, J. Madison Daugherty, Hud Prichard, Gordon Lyons, W. W. Nicklaus, R. P. Jarrett, Jr., Mitchell Jones, Roscoe Davis, Andy Walsh, Fred Walker of Amarillo, M. E. Cantrell, Alfred Bellah, and the hostess.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES LED BY MRS. BURROW

The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church met on July 13 for a regular period of study and worship.

The devotional was led by Mrs. C. R. Burrow. She stated that the growth of Christian Missions revealed that God had been working with us during the years. Though the followers of Christ had failed in bringing in the kingdom, they had come a long way toward their goal. The proof of this statement was that the church has become world-wide; that the church is growing more united; that the church in foreign lands reveal the vitality of Christianity, and that the church is helping to solve problems in our own country.

The missionary lesson was given by Mrs. Robert W. Jones. She gave first-hand information on her work with the mountain people of Kentucky.

The meeting was closed by prayer led by Mrs. J. R. Sharp and Mrs. Burrow, in behalf of the Christian laborers in foreign and national fields.

JULY MEETING OF H. D. COUNCIL IS HELD

The July monthly meeting of the Randall County Home Demonstration Council met in the court house Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, July 3. There were fifteen members present, representing five clubs.

A parliamentary drill was conducted, with council members participating. The main motion and amending of the main motion was the chief topic of discussion. The most important use for parliamentary procedure is to maintain an orderly and concise matter of settling questions of business origin, also it helps develop poise and a calm and pleasant personality.

A letter of thanks and appreciation was read from Mrs. John Moody. Where we have lost a very loyal and kind club and council friend, someone else has the advantage to know and love her as we do.

Following adjournment of council a special election was conducted to determine the county delegates for the State meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association to be held at Dallas sometime in August. Delegates are:

Mrs. Clarence Beckman, Umbarger Club; Mrs. Jack Baker, Highland Club; Mrs. R. T. Normand, Western Avenue Club.

Alternates for delegates are: Mrs. E. A. Michael, Zita Club; Mrs. L. S. Johnson, Ralph Club; Mrs. Joe Baber, West Side Club.

There will be a council meeting August 7th. All clubs are urged to be represented.

Marrakech Market Place

On bicycles, donkeys and their own feet they come to shop at the market place at Marrakech, French Morocco, where merchandising goes on from roofless stands, small huts, and even from the laps of merchants sitting cross-legged on the pavement. A portion of the city can be seen in the background. (Passed by Army censor.)

Man Bites Dog!

Meet Lawrence (The Leerer) Labno, 11 months old, of Chicago, who won't stand for foolishness. Duke tried to fitch the lad's soup-bone and Lawrence snapped at his ear, taking such a bite that a bandage was required. The Leerer looks kind of remorseful, really.

FIGHT

A Fifehire farmer gave his half-witted herd-lad, Jamie, a ticket to admit him to a sacred recital in a neighboring town, to be given by local talent, and told the lad to be sure and enjoy himself.

The farmer was greatly surprised to find his servant in the kitchen long before the conclusion of the performance, and upon asking him why he had returned from the recital, Jamie replied:

"Weel, maister, a man yonder began to sing 'I'm the King of Glory,' then anither said he was 'the King of Glory,' and when I saw three others standin' up an' sayin' they were 'the Kings of Glory,' I ken there was to be a mecht, so cam aw' an' left them to finish it among themselves."

JUST THE THING

A customer walked into the pet shop.

"I like parrots," he informed the shopkeeper, "but I want one that can keep its mouth shut when told."

"Here's one that speaks French," the proprietor said, "Tell him to keep quiet and he shuts up like a clam."

The customer hesitated.

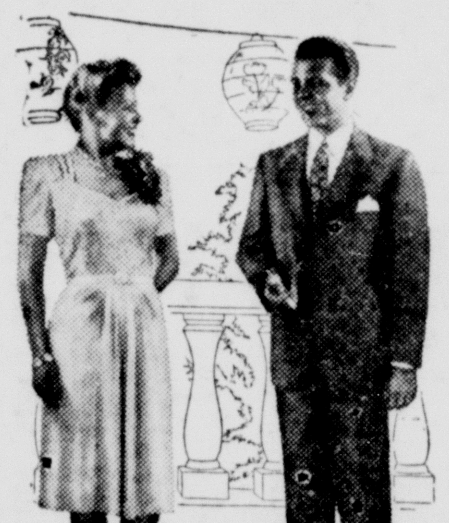

"Is that the most intelligent parrot you have?" he asked.

The proprietor looked around. Finally, he pointed to another bird. "If you're looking for a really intelligent parrot," he confided, "that's the one you want. Would you believe it, that bird can keep its mouth shut in six different languages!"

May: "The artist says that 10,000 won't buy that picture he has on exhibit."

Sam: "I'm one of the 10,000."

Old Age Discussed Tuesday at Rotary Club Luncheon

Dr. Robert P. Jarrett talked at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday on old age. Physicians and the public generally are concerned about childhood, but little study has been given to old age. Only one publication has been devoted to the care of old people, and this was printed in Germany.

There are many factors in the proper care of old age, such as proper clothing, diet. The public is very sympathetic with old age, but look upon elderly persons as economic useless, therefore subject to little consideration.

The speaker declared that care of the aged should be made a scientific study, and that the present indifference toward old age should not exist. "A man is useful as long as he lives," stated Dr. Jarrett. He gave many illustrations of men who had contributed their greatest achievements during the period of old age. Mankind is deeply indebted to the progress which has been contributed by men 70 to 90 years old.

The speaker declared that men should be stimulated to carry on. Medical science can prolong life and it should be devoted to "keeping the aged at work."

Visitors were: Bob Watson of Plainview; Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum of Clarendon; Rev. Marvin Norwood of Shamrock; Rev. Hubert Thompson, president of the Wellington Rotary Club.

"Pa, what is tact?"

"Tact, my son, is knowing how to do things without appearing to be doing them. For instance, I asked Mr. Harriman to dinner this evening, and incidentally remarked that your mother would entertain us on the piano. Mr. Harriman said he was so sorry he couldn't come."

Aviation Cadet Is Speaker Tuesday at Lions Club Lunch

Six years in the army and nineteen months foreign service is the record of Cadet M. J. Olson who spoke at the noon luncheon of the Lions Club Tuesday. Cadet Olson is now on the campus of West Texas State in training to be a pilot. He has served as a gunner on many bombing missions over Kiska and Attu.

The boys in the Aleutians are a bunch of kids who know what to do and are not afraid to do it, according to Mr. Olson. He stated that they have been in a difficult situation. Of 114 gunners in the group of which he was a member, only nine are still alive and three of those are in the hospital. After listening to his talk, one can only come to the conclusion that all of us on the home front need to know more about what the boys are going through and then resolve to do many times more than we are doing now to support them.

Lion Loyd Shackelford, former member of the club and now stationed at Alameda, Calif., was present at the meeting. Other guests were E. E. Hawkins and Deputy Sheriff R. M. Allred of north Randall county.

Lion J. Lee Gillmore, formerly of Wheeler, joined the club. Lion Guinn of Friona visited. Only one member was absent from the luncheon.

In his law office Joseph H. Choate was being interviewed by a well-known reporter, relates a story in The Wall Street Journal. Though it was a warm June day, Mr. Choate had a big fire burning in the grate. The reporter began to squirm in discomfort.

"Do you think it is warm in here?" asked Choate, noting the others' restlessness.

"Warm?" replied the reporter, who had learned all he wanted to know from the man and no longer had to pretend. "It's as hot as an oven."

"Indeed!" exclaimed Choate with a laugh. "But then it ought to be as hot as an oven, for, you see, I make my bread here."

GUILTY

The prisoner was on trial for stealing ducks. His council addressed the jury at length, pointing out that it had not been proved conclusively that the prosecutor had lost any ducks; that the ducks found in the prisoner's cottage were not those of the prosecutor; that the prisoner had established an absolute alibi.

Just as the judge began to sum up, the prisoner interposed and asked if he might say something. As an indulgence, this was permitted.

"All I want to say, gentlemen," he remarked, "is that I wish I'd never seen those birds."

Big Game Hunter (in Africa): Goodness me! Cannibals! Wife: Now dear, don't get yourself in a stew.

Bill: "There's a certain question I've wanted to ask you for weeks." Mabel: "Well, get a move on, I've had the answer waiting for months."

With a bracing back rest and half-reclining posture, even uphill travel is a cinch on this ancient French-made bicycle. The rider is a Cheltenham, England, worker who found it in a garage where it had lain unused for years. He pedals to work in comfort now, the envy of neighbors.

"Beg your pardon," said the student, "what did you say the man has?"

"He has $2,000," replied the physician.

The school teacher was proud of the way the pupils were trained for fire drill. One day she said: "Now, children, what would you do if I told you the building was on fire?"

A hundred children gave the answer.

A few days later a lecturer visited the school house.

The school teacher said: "Now children, what would you do if I told you Dr. Dykes was going to lecture here today?"

They all answered: "We would rise promptly, put away our books, then quietly and without disorder file into the street."

Your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.—Genesis.

ALASKA—THE LAND THAT TIME FORGOT

Have you ever had the experience of seeing your home blown up from the impact of bombs "Made in Japan"? Have you ever waded through ice cold Pacific waters to build a base on a deserted Aleutian isle? Have you ever seen a Japanese plane shot down from the sky, and felt a thrill of pride in the brave man flying the plane that shot the enemy down? Have you ever had to fight your way through an Alaskan blizzard to dig a foxhole that might mean the difference between life and death for yourself? Have you ever felt a thrill of pride shot through you, as you watched American planes take off to bomb the enemy from a field which you had a part in building?

These are just a few of the thrills which have been a part of the life of those who have lived and fought in Alaskan Territory. To many of you, it may seem a remote and far away battle front, but to those who were there and saw their friends killed and wounded and to those who took part in the bombing and fighting of the enemy over Kiska and Attu, the battle of Alaska was a very real thing. Although the fighting there has been on a minor scale, the men who fought there have taken part in one of the toughest battles of the war. Not only did they have the little yellow men to fight; they also had to fight the weather and the treacherous Alaskan willow. Through the entire year, there are not more than two dozen clear days in the Aleutians. To those of you who have never spent any time there, it is hard to believe, but to those who had to live there, and work in the weather, it was a grim reality. There were times when it was all your life was worth to step outside of your hut or tent—depending on which you lived in. But the work had to go on, and the men who were responsible for doing it never shirked their duty. They fought the weather, and they fought the Japs, and, while they did not drive the weather from Alaska, they won both battles, nevertheless. And the men who gave their lives there in the bleakness that is the Aleutians, gave up only when they were too weak to fight any more. They died, but they knew that they had fought a winning battle, and that their comrades would continue their work, and keep the Japs from getting a foothold on the continent of North America. For, if those men had weakened, the Japs might have taken important bases and put himself in a position to bomb the United States and Canada.

So, each one of us owes an eternal debt to those men who kept the enemy away from our shores and enabled each of us to breathe easily in the knowledge that American soldiers were prepared for anything the Japs might throw at them. When the time came, they defended their country's outermost boundaries in a manner which all of us can be proud of.

Hats off to Alaskan soldiers, and the safety they brought us.

The officer of the day entered the guard-room and found it empty except for a private who, striped to his shirt and trousers, was lounging on a chair and smoking a pipe. "Where's the sergeant of the guard?" demanded the officer, angrily. "Gone across to the sergeant's mess to have a drink, sir," replied the private. "And the sentries?" "In the canteen, sir." "Then, confound it, what are you doing here?" "Me, sir?" was the reply. "I'm the prisoner."

Flight 1

Last week was a rather hectic week—new regulations and a revised schedule. Our schedule, for any concerned, is as follows: 6:00 a. m.—Whizzzz. 10:00 p. m.—Plop! Then we take a short nap until 6:00 the next morning. The worst thing about getting up in the morning is that it breaks up one's sleep. But once getting up and putting two toothpicks between one's eyes will get you through the day awake.

To the girls: Because we don't talk to you during the week isn't because we don't want to. It's part of our new regulations.

It was a pretty hot day the other week while I was getting a haircut. Things were going along okay when all of a sudden the barber sneezed in my face! I looked at him, not knowing whether I should get mad at him or let the incident pass. Before I could make up my mind, he said, "I know it isn't sanitary, pal, but it's cool!" ... Corny, but true.

A genuine pedigree mongrel—that's what the mascot of Terrill Courts is. We call her Queenie. If you saw the way the boys treat her, you'd understand why. We treat her as any Queen upon her throne. There isn't a meal we come back from that Queenie doesn't sit down and partake of the bittles we bring back. For example, tonight for dinner she had three types of sliced meats, two large radishes, a small portion of potato salad, potato chips, bread and butter and cinnamon cake. And without a ration card too. Of course she has some bad habits. What gets us down most is coming back from classes and finding a couple of dozen shoes out on the lawn. Queenie, in her daily playful mood, went into our quarters and dragged out all shoes that came in her way. The worst part is someone with a size seven shoe ending up with a mate size twelve. But we love her and shall protect her for the duration of our stay.

We've had our first W. A. A. C. GI issue. A-S R. Sharples was issued a sun tan shirt complete with double cuff bottoms and an inner chest flap. Isn't he cute? I believe what ended A-S A. Hucker's career as Right Guide was when our flight in drilling was given a counter march. Our Mister Hucker did a column right and would be still marching if he hadn't realized that we don't drill on the grandstand.

A-S E. Erick, better known as "Klondike," started his career as detachment gardener. Maybe we'll have "purty" flowers now. It seems A-S K. Pence will postpone his baseball career for some time. Playing short-stop, he and the second baseman ran for a hard hit ball. The second baseman got the ball and Mister Pence got the baseman's knee—on the nose.

I guess I've said enough this week, so until next Thursday, adios.

—Ted G. Shapiro.

Flying Buffaloes

Flight Two

Saturday was the big day for the men of this flight. That day that all Service men live for, finally came around. "What day is that?", you ask. Why, pay day, of course. If you had seen the happy looks on the boys' faces last Saturday, you would have known that a pay day is the biggest morale builder the soldier has. There were some pretty nice amounts handed out by Uncle Sam, as the boys received their foreign service pay. Saturday evening, the men came out with all the trimmings that go to make up a first class soldier. In fact, it seems that you could spot the Canyon students, in Amarillo, by the shine on their shoes, and the crease in their pants. Most of them looked as though they had just stepped out of a page in Esquire.

We forgot to mention last week that a very important event took place. The members of flight two, under the direction of Lt. Jack Stephenson, solemnly performed a task which changed their entire life on the campus. Or so we thought. The task was the transfer of our name plates from the right side of our shirt to the left side. This was ended our life as underclassmen and our new life as upperclassmen was begun. But then came the rub. Although we looked up all the old orders, and checked all the old men for information, we discovered that, as upperclassmen, we had gained no new privileges. But we do have the honor.

Several of our men are working at Wing Headquarters, and doing quite a job. Among them is Bill Eidam, and he is really doing important work. In fact, his work is so important that no one sees him going to work. But, seriously, he is a good worker, and we all know that he will do a good job in his new position. It takes a good man to volunteer to do a job, which must be done in his free time. We know that he can do it, because he gets along with stuckup Major Kearney, and the only other person to do that, as far as we know, is a certain young lady on the campus. Don't take this seriously, Major, we are only kidding.

Jimmy Payne and your correspondent went horseback riding at the Canyon last Sunday, and really had a good time. There were a lot of the fellows from the Detachment out there, and the bridal path was in great demand. It was the first trip out there, for many of the fellows, and the comments were very pleasing to the men who operate the gate there. Although the rain destroyed the trail in some places, the caretakers had it in good condition for the week end. All of us who visited the Canyon were pleased with the trip, and plan another in the very near future.

We have a few items of gossip this week, to let you know what's cooking with the fellows.

Bill Thompson and Lt. (Buck) Fisher, wish to extend an invitation to any of their fellow students who wish to do so, to visit them over the week end. They will "be home" to visitors Saturday and Sunday. Only male students will be admitted. It is suspected that tea and cakes will be the bill of fare. There may be pink lemonade served, but then, this may be only an idle rumor. The boys aren't going to Amarillo this week end because they say that there are too many soldiers on the street.

William (Big Boy) McCarthy has been seen around with a very nice number for the past two weeks. They must be pretty good friends, because he is pricing engagement rings. His buddy, Art Kroesch, and Buenna Vernon, have been seen holding hands around the campus. It must be love, or spring, or something.

Carl Seifert broke down on his record last week. In case you don't remember, he pledged himself to take out a different girl each night he was here. Well, last week, he was seen with a young lady from Randall Hall, three nights in a row. Maybe, he couldn't get away from her, but it didn't look that way to us. He seemed very anxious to take her out again.

Robert Judnik wishes to thank all the nice young ladies that called him last week after they heard how lonesome he was, but he regrets that he didn't have the courage to ask the young lady in the cafeteria for a date. It must be hard on a man to be tongue tied in the presence of a lady.

Joe Dailey is waiting for a certain young lady to find out that she went out with a married man, before he asks her for another date. It seems that someone told her Joe was married, and she refused him a date on those grounds. Then she turned around, and went out twice with a married man. Joe says, that if he is married, he would sure like to meet his wife. It is no more of a surprise to him, though, than to those of us that live with him.

Notice to "Longhorn" Gunter: Your friend from Cousins Hall, doesn't mind your whistling at her, but she doesn't want the whole flight whistling at her. She isn't angry, though. Her attitude is that a girl doesn't have to worry until the men stop whistling at her. I think she has something there. In conclusion this week, the members of our flight wish to extend their heartfelt sympathy to the boys from Stafford Hall, and Student Captain Kasonovich. We used to live at the NYA Shop, too.

Flights 7-8

Flight 7 and 8 have been mighty busy the past week. For that reason, there was no copy turned in by the boys. However, there are loads of things that have happened to the two respective flights to write about. Of course, we know that the boys have been flying, but that all was the minor part of their work for the week.

Inspection after inspection was shot at the boys. Not only were the famous "Stafford Hallers" off the infernal ball, but they were obliged to vacate their abodes. Bad is not in the least the feeling of these flights—it's terrible!

The ex-Stafford Hallers have the sympathy and are offered the condolences of the rest of the detachment. There's more than one reason for this: Maybe someone else will have to move into the hall, and perhaps there was a ghost at the hall. Maybe that ghost went around just before inspection and messed up the floors, dirtied the windows, unshined the shoes, and did the million and one other things that were found wrong over there. We're all sure that that was a ghost going around doing all that, because we're also sure that the seven and eights WOULDNT have done a thing like that. In any event, if the fellows in Flight 9 and 10 have to move over to Stafford Hall, they intend to break the JINX that seems to have been with everyone that ever moved into Stafford Hall.

At the Flying Field during the week, there have been many little things that haven't gone so well. For instance, take the time "Shorty" Middleton went up and decided that a spin was a good place and time to stick his head out the window.—He had to. Maybe some of you have seen Chick Miller try to imitate an AT-6 pilot make a landing—at least, he didn't do like Jimmy Wells did. Jimmy says that the rear landing wheel wasn't needed anyhow, and as for the rudder, who needs a rudder anyhow?

"Mine Got," says Lover Manowitz when he got his bum grade in his flying lesson last Sunday. Guess the reason was that his girl made him a little nervous watching him from the ground. Well, at least he got to see her for six hours.

Some folks say that Flights 7 and 8 haven't really been on the ball these last two weeks, but all you have to do is ask them and they'll tell you that there's nothing like them. Why, everyone has noticed them out every evening drilling to their heart's content—heart's (?). One thing we can all say about this excess drilling is that maybe when they get to Classification this last minute polishing-up may have done them some good.

Bob Cherry sure did have a heck of a time trying to see his girl friend, for the last time in a long while, this past week. Bob has everyone's sympathies. At least we don't blame him after getting a look at her. We also give our sorrow to Bill White who was in the same predicament with his cutie as Cherry.

The person who wrote this column this week is ashamed to claim it, so blame anyone you get your hands on. And as we leave you tonight, we wish you all good luck where you will soon go and hope that there are at least one or two pilots in your group.

Flight 9

Winston Churchill

You can't get anything out of "Hell's Angels" this week excepting mumbles and meaningless gestures and blank stares. Every mother's son of 'em is dreamin'. The time draws near ... nearer ... it's later than he realizes, for Monday's the big day, the day for which he's been waitin' patiently. ...

Monday ... the day he'll feel like an "honest" man when he hears himself referred to as "flying student" ... the day he can thumb his nose at those who used to call him and his buddies the "flying infantry".

He'll get to look at a plane, Monday, and touch it, and he'll carress it fondly as something treasured ... and maybe, Monday, but more probably Tuesday, he'll get his big thrill ... up, up—higher, higher ... into the deep azure skies. Does it matter whether he's flown before or not? Not to this lad ... soon, he'll be soaring, zooming, swooping, spinning, banking, gliding ... playing "hide-and-seek" behind the marshmallow clouds. Day after day his confidence will grow, and with it that sense of mastery that comes with experience, and ... not so very long from now you'll be reading about him ... the ordinary "Joe" you used to pal around with. Wasn't it your buddy, Downey, who bombed Berlin? ... And remember that goofy Bob Hummert, 'member how slow he was on those road runs? ... Well, he wasn't so slow, when it came to baggin' a bunch of zeroes. ... He's an ace, now. ... And that was sure some super navigation on the part of Max McPeck, that saved those lost fliers in the South Pacific last week, eh? Yep, Monday's the big day. ... So, just forgive this bewildered young guy with the blank stare and the haphazard movements. ... He's dreamin', now, but soon he'll be into the serious business of flyin' the pants off the Heinies. ... and that's what's on the minds of the boys from our flight, tonight.

Y'know, fellas, what good friends Bob Hummert and the coach have become of late? Gosh, it just wouldn't be the same old road run if the coach didn't ride Bob all the way home each Monday and Thursday. By the way, Hummert's wife and baby are here. They came all the way down here from Illinois to see the great track star excel in his specialty, the three mile sprint (?).

Hummert's family weren't the only visitors to arrive this week to cheer up our lonely flight-niners. ... Marv Gromfin's gal and "Bat" Mann's sweetie came all the way down here from the Windy City to spend the week end with them in this Windy Country. ... Ritchie Holman's "Flame" from Dallas was still another pretty visitor.

Our hats are off to a guy who can take a real beatin' like a man, not give ground when he knows he's right, and be a good enough sport to admit it when he's wrong ... and come out of it smilin' ... Captain Durham.

We'd like to know why Mann spends so much of his time in that little cubby hole in the Home Economics room. Whatcha gonna be, after the war, Mann? A housewife?

Marv Gromfin is so pleased with the results of his last shovel work, he has ordered a large supply of a similar make of shovel from Sears, C. O. D.

Sarg Kurrack says he's beatin' Sarg Cope's time with a certain Canyon gal. ... How about that Cope? Gonna let him steal your girl?

Well, if the rumors and the former roomers have it straight, we'll be seein' you next week in good ole Stafford, once again.

Bye, now ... pleasant dreams. ... Switch Off!

Rudder Dust

Dave Waite and George Phillip

Ho Hum! This is Monday morning and that's just the way I feel after a very pleasant but tiring week end. If I can keep my eyes open long enough, flight 10 may have a column after all. The past week end many members of our flight were seen having a gay time in the beautiful, crystal-clear, waters of the Palo Duro Canyon. Because of the comparatively heavy rains, recently, there is enough water in the canyon to flood several of the crossings. Coach Miller might have taken it a little easier on the boys this week had he seen the workout that some of them got while pushing stalled cars. If the pictures turn out good, Bill Solomon and Charlie Taylor should be able to show you some good action shots.

There's current talk that Wing Commander Don Smith might stump the expert—namely, the psychiatrist at Santa Ana. It's 10-1 odds that he'll have the psychiatrist saying, "See Guy! See Guy! See See!"

We wonder what the reason for Helen Palmer giving Herr Mueller the air. (Three guesses, the first two don't count).

A short time ago we mentioned that Ransome (Handsome Red-eye) Webb was in desperate need of a step ladder. Well, he has finally found it, and of all places, it had to be in the children's playground next door to the tennis courts.

Yes! He doodit! Tom Turner swapped his weekly "root-beer" party for a date. The result is, that Tom has given up "root-beer" for good now.

Dick (S. M.) Vogel has been wandering around lately in an absent-minded fashion looking as though he had lost something, and we don't think that it's his mind, not yet anyway.

The big question mark in the minds of the men of flight ten is who is the anonymous person who keeps calling George Phillip? He met her while on O. D. duty—how about that? (P. S.: James Siddon is now moving in on this deal and has also been seen with the wife of his roommate.)

As we sit here typing this we wonder how Jerry Suson is making out with his helper in the next room; we wonder if she really needs his guidance.

Joe Tomes has been recently seen strutting around Buffalo Courts with a couple of "spots" on his shoulders. Nice work, Joe, but I wouldn't spend so much time on them—they weren't made to take a shine.

We wish that someone would tip off the corporal of the third element that Traeder cadence and army cadence aren't one and the same thing.

Student Lieutenant Charles Vych-open and Fred E. Waibel (The Wolves) have been having difficulties in the current social whirl. It seems that there are some similarities in their cases — the wolves have begun to howl!

Charles Taylor, who such a short time ago was all out for that certain someone from Illinois, has found a new local interest. Watch your step Charles—you Autry know better!

If you notice Jack Volp running around loose with a beard, fear not for he is only preparing for the bivouac at Santa Ana. You're excused, Jack, we understand how long it will take you to raise a beard to make you look like the rest of us men (we also know that you can't even hold four small root beers).

It seems that "Bobbie" Rowe couldn't find his second wind in last Monday's two-mile run. He came into the last lap with a Glen Cunningham style (maybe a little faster) only to find that he not only failed to find his second wind, but also lost all of the wind he had to begin with as a result he was almost carried off the field.

Mr. and Mrs. Sahm and Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt were in Canyon last week end visiting their sons, Vernon and Robert, respectively.

Special advertisement: Come one, come all! to the jam sessions you hear during free times in Buffalo Courts. The rhythm comes from two outstanding musicians who came directly from New York (Harlem) for the sole purpose of entertaining the boys from flight ten and whoever dares to lend an ear. It sounds like a twenty-five piece "Coon" jaz band, but it's only Dave (Dancing Boy) Waite and Dave (Plumber) Webb. That plumber doesn't mean Emmet Risse, because Risse is a "Sanitary Engineer."

Alfonso Valls has really been going to town with the women lately, and we do mean going to town. The week end found him with Edwina Tooley. When seen Saturday night she seemed thrilled to be with that big soldier boy she had been so anxious to be introduced to. Sunday found her in an entirely different mood—we wonder why.

We halt now by the command of the clock. It's getting nigh on closing time, so for this week we bid you "adoios."

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by
BOYCE HOUSE

Of all the trips your columnist has made, three stand out because of the means of transportation.

One occurred when I was a young police reporter and stood on the back step of a bouncing, swaying police patrol that was going 50 miles an hour through city streets.

Another was in an auto-gyro, piloted by Captain Yancey, who was co-pilot on a plane that spanned the Atlantic in the days when successful flights across the ocean were so rare that they were front-page "streamer" material. An auto-gyro has its propeller on top and this queer-looking contrivance "takes off" after going along the ground only a few feet, and it can come almost straight down.

Have you ever looked at a vulture hanging motionless against a brilliant blue sky and wondered how it would feel to stand still in mid-air? Well, you can do that in an auto-gyro.

We were over the business section of Fort Worth when Captain Yancey kicked it out of gear and there we hung while we chatted—to be more exact, he chatted; probably I chattered, or at least my teeth did. (The lifting force of the wooden blades overhead is sufficient to hold the plane almost stockstill for a while, then it starts easing toward the ground unless the pilot puts it back in gear.)

And the third trip that was memorable because of the method of transportation was aboard a private railroad car. Yes, sir, a journey on a private car for a fellow who had never known anything on the rails more sumptuous than the rather restricted space of a berth.

There were three railroad officials and a combination cook-valet-waiter-porter aboard. It was an inspection journey over the Childress-Pampa line, which was practically completed but not yet opened to regular traffic, and this observer was then a staff writer for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

For three days, your columnist enjoyed a drawing room with private shower bath, excellent meals served en route, the spacious lounge where you could take a nap on the settee, read magazines, look thru the glassed-in rear of the car and see the scenery running away from you, and, every time you turned your head, there was that remarkable cook-valet-waiter-porter offering a fresh package of cigarettes or a cooling glass of lemonade or a between-meals sandwich.

That, my hearties, was a trip what was a trip!

Buck Taylor of Middlebush fame is public relations director, Texas Institute of Natural Resources and Industrial Development, headquarters Dallas. Buck once coined a superlative simile: "As impossible as a private conversation in Austin."

And the Comanche Chief says, "Physical examinations for the Army have now got to the point that, when you come before the medical officer, he just feels you. If you're warm, you're in."

From Randall County Home Economists.

The one hard and fast rule in the game of eating for health is that all of the essential food materials must be provided somewhere in the three meals eaten daily. The foods which provide them are the "must" foods. The following guide lists the daily "must" foods and shows the kinds and the amounts of each food that are needed to assure each member of the family an adequate supply of the food essentials:

Milk: 1 quart for each child and each prospective mother. 1 pint each adult. These amounts include the milk used in cooking and for drinking.

Fruits: 1 serving of fresh citrus fruit, such as oranges or grapefruit in season, or a serving of tomatoes, raw or canned; one other serving of fruit, fresh or dried, cooked or raw.

Vegetables: 1 or more servings of potatoes a day; 2 or more servings a day of vegetables other than potatoes, one of them green or yellow.

Eggs: 1 egg a day for each child; 4 a week for adults.

Lean meat, fish and poultry: 1 serving daily.

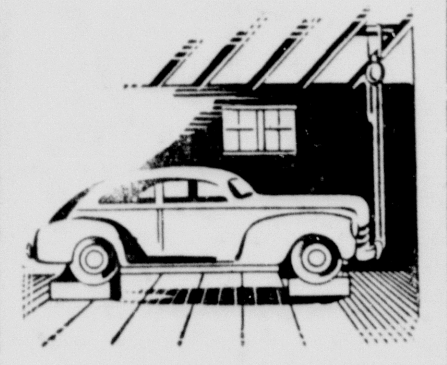

Cereals and Breads: Either whole grain or enriched cereals and breads. Cereal: 1 serving daily; bread: a serving at each meal. More cereals and breads should be used if the energy needs are high and the income limited.

Fats and sugars: Butter or oleomargarine with vitamin A added. Fats and sugar to complete the energy requirement.

Meals should be planned by the week and checked by this guide to insure each member of the family an evenly proportional and well-balanced diet.

THOMPSON'S

A MESSAGE TO EVERY AMERICAN FROM THE PRESIDENT

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 24, 1943

My dear Mr. Secretary:

Through you, as Secretary of the Treasury, I want to congratulate the American people on the way in which they have supported the voluntary payroll savings plan.

I am proud of the fact that 27,000,000 patriotic Americans are regularly investing more than $420,000,000 a month to help pay the cost of the war. And since all of this money comes from wages and salaries — nearly 90 percent from people earning less than $5,000, and the bulk of it from those working in war plants — I do not hesitate to say that the payroll savings plan is the greatest single factor we now have in protecting ourselves against inflationary spending.

This is a great record, both from the standpoint of curbing inflation and from the standpoint of financing the war. However, I heartily endorse your present drive to improve that record, and I agree it must be improved if we are to keep pace with the increasing demands of the war.

I therefore join you in calling upon the American people -- and upon labor and management particularly -- to do still more. Additional people should be convinced of the necessity of participating. Everyone now on the payroll savings plan should materially increase the amount of bonds he is buying. We originally asked for 10 percent, but now we need considerably more.

I hope every American on a payroll will figure out for himself the extent to which he can curtail his spending, and will put every dollar of additional saving thus made into the payroll savings plan.

Sincerely yours,

Franklin D. Roosevelt

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Treasury
